THE THIRD SUPPLY TO JAMESTOWN, VA. 1609-1610

Following the 1st settlement in 1607, there were three "Supplies" of men and provisions to support the first adventurers. After granting of the 2nd charter May 23, 1609, to the London Company, the 3rd Supply sailed from England June 8, 1609 in a fleet of nine ships; The Falcon was commanded by Capt. John Martin; The Swallow, by Capt. Moone; one of the nine, the Sea Adventure (Adventure) was wrecked in Bermuda July 20, 1609. They reached Jamestown May 21, 1610 in the Patience and Deliverance. Aboard these two ships were Sir Thos. Gates, Sep. Gov.; Sir Geo. Somers, Admr. of Va.; Christopher Newport, Vice-Admr. of Va.; a company of Netherlands Soldiers were also along.

Only a few of these who came on the THIRD SUPPLY are known by name, among these are: Nicholas Bennitt, Thomas Powell, Stephen Hopkins, William Martin, Humphrey Reed.
